Purpose

This guide is intended primarily for the club secretary. It describes the goals and responsibilities of and resources for the club secretary. It also will be helpful to other club officers and members.

Being an Effective Club Secretary

The effectiveness of Serra depends to a great extent upon how well club committees work together. As their chief liaison, the club secretary insures that all records are kept accurately and relevant information is shared with committee chairs and members.

The club secretary also bears part of the responsibility for instilling a spirit of cooperation in every member. One of the primary ways in which the club secretary does this is by being the club "information resource center." The club secretary must be well informed on the history and objectives of Serra; the available manuals and their contents; your club Bylaws and the Serra International Constitution and Bylaws; and what services are offered by the USAC and International offices.

Goals

- maintain all club records and history;
- maintain club policy manual;
- maintain internal communications between the board and members; and
- correspond with other clubs, USAC and Serra International.

Responsibilities to:

Club Members

- notify members of all meetings
- notify members of appointments to club committees and special assignments in writing

Club Members

- contact members who have not attended to determine reason
- report promptly the names of visiting Serrans to their own club so they may receive credit for attending meetings

Club Committees

- publish and maintain club committee lists
- work with the club committees on the club bulletin/newsletter

Club Officers

- assist the president in preparing the agendas for each club meeting
- help prepare the agenda for and attend Board meetings

Club as a Whole

- maintain roster of members and shares with treasurer
- take minutes of each meeting for the permanent file
- keep accurate and permanent attendance records at all club meetings
- maintain the permanent club history
- authenticate by signature all records and documents

- have a copy of the International Constitution and Bylaws and club Bylaws to review as needed
- read all papers as requested by club

- prepare periodic reports as required

Serra International

- prepare and forward delegate credentials for the Serra International Convention

USA Council

- submit address changes as soon as they are known-treasurer enters on Serra International portal

- submit listing of incoming officers prior to May 31 of each year
- assist the president in submitting nominees for District Governor
- assist the president in submitting ballots for the election of Regional Director and USA Council officers

Additional Responsibilities

The club secretary is responsible for various materials used in the course of his or her work. They are:

- all records and club property
- original Serra charter
- corporate seal
- corporate charter
- club Bylaws
- club history
- minutes of all meetings of the club and board of trustees
- complete file of rosters and lists of members
- complete file of club bulletins
- correspondence and materials from USAC and Serra International
- attendance reports
- anniversary dates of all members
- stationery

- miscellaneous equipment

Resources

- Outgoing secretary
- Serra International Constitution and Bylaws
- Position descriptions for club officers
- Club Bylaws
- US Council Constitution and Bylaws
  - THE SERRAN
  - Always Forward Never Back e-newsletter
- Spring Leadership Training Conferences are offered each year between April 15 and May 31 in each district for the training of club officers and trustees. They are an opportunity to meet and talk with past district governors and board members and to compare notes and exchange ideas with other club secretaries.
- District/Regional Conventions are held annually and provide practical information on club organizations and activities.
- Serra International Conventions are an opportunity to confer with International officers and other club officers, to discuss problems or concerns with International staff, and to exchange ideas on various club activities.
- USA Council provides an opportunity to meet with Serans from around the country at the annual Serra Rally. Serras also have an opportunity to serve on national committees.
